

Carson R. Wagner

January 4, 1928 - December 28, 2019

Carson R. Wagner, 91 years, of Monroe, Michigan, passed away on Saturday, December 28, 2019 in his home.

Born January 4, 1928 in Maynardville, Tennessee, Carson was the son of the late Dewey Alton and Hettie (Needham) Wagner. The family moved to Monroe when Carson was a child.

Carson served his country honorably and proudly in the United States Air Force.

On February 4, 1950 Carson married his beloved wife, the former Minnie Opal Cain, in Indiana, Sadly, she preceded him in death on May 9, 2011 after 61 years of marriage.

Carson supported his family by working at Union Camp for 46 years. He retired in 1990.

Carson enjoyed hunting, fishing, and woodworking. He was meticulous about his yard work and always had a beautiful flower and bountiful vegetable garden. Carson was also a great musician and loved playing his guitar and sharing his beautiful singing voice with family and friends. Most of all Carson enjoyed time spent with family.

Carson is survived by three loving children: Dana L. (Kirk) Heller, Keith (Cissy) Wagner, and Trudy L. (Charles) Boes all of Monroe, nine cherished grandchildren; Jason Garcia, Johnny Hardy, Jessica Brenton, Matthew Heller, Emily Wagner, Jacob Boes, Tyler Boes, Goldie Boes, and Cassy Garrett, three treasured great grandchildren; Jaxon, Gabby, Cecelia, with another on the way, and one daughter in law; Janice L. Wagner.

In addition to his parents and wife, Carson was preceded in death by two children; Sheila Garcia and Kelly Wagner, two brothers, two sisters, and his furry companion, his dog Birdie.

In keeping with Carson's wishes cremation and a private memorial service celebrating his life has been held.

Memorial contributions are suggested to Evergreen Acres Missionary Baptist Church.

Comments

---

“ We were old neighbors of Carson and saddened to hear of his passing. He always talked over the fence, always greeted our girls with hello beautiful, and always was welcoming us to come into his home to share stories. We were even special enough to get a CD of his and his families music. Great guy!

Jayme Parker - January 07 at 09:43 PM

---

“ Our deepest condolences to the family. We recently moved in next to Carson and very much enjoyed speaking to him at the fence. He was very kind and always in his yard working, burning leaves, or just outside sitting in his garage. He was a great neighbor, always greeted you with a smile, and never turned down leftovers given to him lol.

Doreen Faust - January 07 at 10:09 AM

---

“ Trula, holding you and your family in prayer. I know it is not easy to let go ~ but I hope you are comforted knowing you dad is in the presence of our Lord. The wait is over. He is reunited with your Mama, and all your family and friends that went before him.

I remember listening to him play at your church hall. I said to you, "Man, he is so good". And you just laughed and said, "He is just warming up".

Can you just imagine him, your brother and your Mama singing and playing before our Lord? The sounds of their music and voices reunited. The choir of angels joining in, and all are amazed.

And your dad saying, "I was just warming up"...

Love you!!!

Gina McKeone - December 31, 2019 at 09:19 AM

---

“ Trudy & Family, I am so sorry for your loss. Praying for you.

Virginia Pierce - December 31, 2019 at 08:18 AM

---

“ So very sad to hear of Carson’s passing. He and my Dad, Jesse Wilson (JB), were great friends and spent many hours singing and playing guitars. I am blessed to be named after him, Jeffery Carson Wilson. I send my prayers to all and know he will be missed!
Jeff and Alicia Wilson

Jeffery Carson Wilson - December 30, 2019 at 06:31 PM

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Carson's passing, my dad (J.B.Wilson) and I spent many Fridays and Saturday nights playing and recording our music, precious memories that I'll never forget. Dad and Joe always call the man with the velvet voice!!! God bless you all our love and prayers Jack and Eileen Wilson

Jack Wilson - December 30, 2019 at 10:22 PM